

WISCONSIN EMPLOYEE LEASING COMPANY ENDORSEMENT – MASTER POLICY

This endorsement applies only to the insurance provided by the policy because Wisconsin is shown in Item 3.A. of the Information Page.

This policy applies only with respect to employees provided by the employee leasing company to the client shown below under an employee leasing company or professional employer arrangement.

Certain words and phrases in this endorsement are defined as follows:

Employee Leasing Company for the purpose of the administration of Chapter 102 of the Wisconsin Statutes means an entity who contracts to provide the nontemporary, ongoing employee workforce of a client under a written contract, regardless of whether the entity uses the term professional employee organization, PEO, staff leasing company, registered staff, leasing company, employee leasing company or any other name.

Client means an entity that obtains all or part of its workforce through a contract with an employee leasing company.

Part One (Workers Compensation Insurance) and Part Two (Employers Liability Insurance) will apply to your covered employees as though the client is an insured.

Under Part One, we will reimburse the employee leasing company for the benefits required by the workers compensation law for your covered employees if we are not permitted to pay the benefits directly to the persons entitled to them.

Premium will be charged for covered employees provided by the employee leasing company. The employee leasing company must obtain from the client and furnish to us a complete payroll record of the covered employees to satisfy obligations under Part Five (Premium), C.2. Payroll for all of the covered employees employed during the policy period will be assigned to the policy.

You must furnish to us a complete payroll record of all your covered employees to satisfy your obligations under Part Five (Premium), C.2. Payroll.

If the policy is canceled or nonrenewed by us, we will send at least 30 days written notice of such cancellation or at least 60 days written notice of nonrenewal to both the employee leasing company and to each client listed in the schedule below.

Voluntary mid-term cancellation of the policy must be agreed upon by all of the clients listed below and the employee leasing company, and must be confirmed either by the employee leasing company promptly giving written confirmation to the client(s) or by written agreement by the client.

If, during the policy period, an employee leasing company terminates an employee leasing agreement in its entirety with one or more, but not all, clients listed in the schedule below, or a client elects to provide coverage for the leased employees pursuant to the provisions of Section 102.315(2m), stats., we may cancel coverage for such client(s) under the policy by endorsement and by providing at least 30 days written notice to the employee leasing company and the terminated client(s). The policy shall continue in force as to all employees of the remaining non-terminated clients.

Part Four (Your Duties If Injury Occurs) applies to you and the client. The client will recognize our right to defend under Parts One and Two and our right to inspect under Part Six (Conditions).

This endorsement changes the policy to which it is attached and is effective on the date issued unless otherwise stated.

(The information below is required only when this endorsement is issued subsequent to preparation of the policy.)
